Bullock Files First Financial Report of the Year Has Raised $36,815 including $20,815 this quarter alone.

(Helena, MT) Attorney General candidate Steve Bullock today filed his first report of 2007, showing a total raised to date of $36,815 from over 200 individual contributors.

“I am honored and encouraged by this strong start,” Bullock said. In this most recent period that runs from January 1, 2007 to March 31, 2007, Bullock raised $20,815.

“This is a marathon, not a sprint and this is the kind of base we need to build at this stage of the race,” said Bullock, a marathon runner who will compete in his second Boston Marathon later this month.

A Montana native, Bullock has served as the Montana’s Executive Assistant Attorney General, as Chief Legal Counsel to Montana’s Secretary of State, worked in private practice, and taught law as an Adjunct Professor at the George Washington University School of Law.

Bullock’s campaign team has already taken shape with former Montana Attorney General and State Senate President Joe Mazurek signing on as the Treasurer, and long time Democratic activist Doug Mitchell agreeing to be the Campaign Manager.

“This kind of a start shows the existence of a very strong base with impressive breadth,” said Doug Mitchell, Bullock’s campaign manager. “I’ve seen a lot of these kind of campaigns and have not seen many in better shape at this early going – I just hope I can keep up with Steve until next November,” Mitchell said.
