Bullock Applauds U.S. Supreme Court Ruling on Gun Rights Says 2nd Amendment "An important part of Montana's heritage."

(Helena) Attorney General candidate Steve Bullock released the following statement about today's United States Supreme Court decision on gun rights.

"I applaud today's decision. The right to individual gun ownership is an important part of Montana's heritage. The Court recognized in its ruling our right as individuals to protect our families, our property and to enjoy the hunting and recreational opportunities that make Montana such a special place to live.
